

We Have a NEW Location in Billerica, MA

Inside Contractor Sales- Lumber Knowledge

Timberline Enterprises LLC is seeking a candidate to fill an Inside Contractor Sales position.

Ideal candidate will need a good understanding of wood frame construction, engineered wood products, millwork and windows, preferably in a sales environment.

- We are looking for individuals with experience in promoting and generating sales of building products in an inside sales environment.
- Experience in the building supply & construction industry
- Proven ability to build and retain strong client relationships
- Promote and generate sales of building products in an inside sales environment
- Process multiple orders while continuing to provide excellent customer service
- Coordinate delivery and/or pick up of customer orders with operations team
- Provide support to Outside Sales force
- Generate price quotations in a timely manner
- Maintains accurate and up-to-date "open order" files in computer system

Estimating and take-off experience is not necessary, but is considered to be a plus, as this knowledge can come in handy when quoting customer orders.

Candidates from within the lumber and building materials industry are preferred.

Pay commensurate with experience including an excellent benefits package!

Send your resume to HR@TLumber.com

